Houses Are Entered and People Held Up On All Sides.

GREENSBORO, N. C., September 8.-This morning about 1 o'clock Artnur This morning about 1 o'clock Arthur Long, of the Greensbore Furniture Company, was held up by two men on West Lee Street, and at the point of a pistoleid by one of the men, was searched and robbed of the being then permitted to go, after having had a rude shaking up in consequences of his assertions that he had no money. While this was going on, policemen, two blocks away, on Cedur Street, were investigating a burglary just committed in a residence, to which they had been summoned by telephone.

glary just committed in a residence, to which they had been summoned by telephone.

Will Morchead, colored, was held up carly yesterday morning on East Washington Street and robbed of all he haden cents. Saturday night five houses on Gilmer Street were entered and ransacked, but only in the home of Noe Gilmer, colored, where $63 in cash was taken, was there any loss.

On West Lee Street, after midnight Saturday morning, thieves entered the residence of Mr. Pitts, where a gold watch and $320 were taken, and of Mr. Moorchield, where $60 in cash was taken and $200 in checks were left lying in a chair. Sunday night the residence of John Boyles, on the same street, was entered and ransacked in all the downstairs rooms, the family sleeping upstairs. No money was found here.

The same night Mrs. Arthur Stack had occasion to go in her back yard, and ran up against a crouching negro man. Her screams brought Mr, Stack from the house, who fired two shotsyat the fleen gruesday night, but Tuesday afternoon two white men were reported thave been robbed of all they had, on a road leading out from the city.

NEW WRONGDOERS. Greensboro Grand Jury Likely to Go After Them Next Week.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 8,-When GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 8.—When the grand jury in the Federal Court adjourned late yesterday afternoon, it had caught up with District Attorney Holton, and he with Assistant Elstrict Attorney Frice and the Washington City representatives of the Department of Justice, were at work at a late hour in the night, preparing new material for the examination of witnesses on before the grand jury to-day. It is now predicted that from additional knowledge gained this week from the army of witnesses here a large number of new subnoenas will be served between this and Monday for an entirely new set of wroas-doors.

monday for an entirely new set of wrongdeers.

The Federal Court grand jury continues to "draw." Such strict secrecy is maintained, all efforts on the part of any one to obtain information is supposed to be fruitless. But testimony before the grand jury that there were 35,000 bushels of corn shipped to one town in one county
in a certain month last year, and only 1,000 in the same month this, and that in one township in this county last year thirty-four distilleries existed, and this year there are but seven, looks like last year's being campaign year might have something to do with having a freight agent here to testify about the corn and others about the distilleries, and it may mean something more.

While out of 300 witnesses summoned, only about eighty have so far been examined, there may be some reason in the reported assurance of one of the grand jurors by District Attorney Hoton that they would be able to get through by Saturday night of this week.

Davidson College Opens.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DAVIDSON, N. C., September 8-Davidson, College opened to-day with the largest enrollment in her history. By 6 o'clock this afternoon 180 students had been formally enrolled, ninety-seven of whom were new men, representing almost every Southern State. The largest previous enrollment on the opening day was 189. The total registration will reach about 276.

Middle-of-the-Week Matinee. As forefold in The Times-Dispatch of Monday, the Richmond Horse Show Association has determined to hold its usual matinee in the middle of the week, so that it will not interfere with the University of Virginia-Carlisle Indian football game to be played Saturday afternoon, October 14th.

SALE OF LIQUOR

Raleigh Board of Aldermen Has Declined to Order One to Be Held.

FARMER DIES OF DISGRACE

An Illicit Still Was On His Land-The Case of Nall.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALisiGH, N. C., September 3.—The Aldermen of this city, after having had the registration list purged by a special committee, and having had the same course taken in regard to the list of persons who applied to the board to call in election on the question of open saloons, has found that the number of persons applying is sixteen short of the required two-thirds of all the voters. The board, therefore, declines to call any elecboard, therefore, declines to call any elec-lion. The liquor men through their law-yers, will now take the case, by writ of mandamus into the courts. Their con-tention is that the law says "registered voters," and that a voter does not have under this provision to pay poll-tax on or before May 1st, of the year in which he makes his petition. The Board of Ar-dermen holds that duly qualified voters, in other words, those who have paid their poll-tax before May 1st, of the year in which an election is held, are the only ones, who have any status whatever is electors.

The Disgrace Killed Him.

The Pagrace Anied Hill.

The revenue officers this week made a ruld in Granville county, and found an illicit distillery in operation upon the lands of an old farmer, named Hayes.

The latter became so much excited on The latter became so much excited on account of the discovery, that he died in three days, his heart being affected. To the last he denied that it was his still, but said the disgrace of the affair was too much for him.

A test case is being made here in the Federal courts before Judge Purneff, under habeas corpus proceedings, to see whether the police justice of Raielgh can sentence persons to work on the roads or to pay a find, without a trial by jury.

Governor Glenn leaves to-morrow for the New England States, to make a series of speeches, and will be absent over a fortnight. Several other southern Governors who were to make up the party, but some of these, it seems, will not be able to go.

Has Created Sensation. Today the attorneys for the four men sent to jail by the verdict of the coroner's jury, which found that to their harsh treatment the death of Patient Nail, at the Central Hospital, looked into the law on this matter, the first question being whether the coroner could put them in jail without a preliminary examination. This hospital case is causing a sensation all over the State, and will cause a very thorough inquiry into the management of the institution here. The directors meet next Wednesday, and, of course, the court before which the prisoners must appear will look very searchingly into the whole matter, as there is always the probability of some one else becoming involved. In fact it would not have been surprising if the coroner's jury had in its finding brought in the names of some other officials. This, it seems, was expected by not a few persons, but the jury only brought in the four attendants, who, it found had caused the death of Nail by blows upon the body and head, particularly the latter. It is alleged that a letter was written from here to Nail's people in Chatham county, saying there was nothing in the stories current as to the treatment, and that this letter was written from a faffar, and before the coroner, acting upon an affadavit, took up this most serious matter.

Next Wednesday, Secretary of State Bryan Grimes is to deliver an address before the National Farmers' Congress at Richmond, his subject to be "The Akricultural Resources and Opportunities of the South."

The authorities at the Agricultural and Mechanical College here are greatly hampered at the lack of dormitory room for students. If this were provided, a number of students could be doubled in a year. Students from other States desire to enter this college, but none can now do so, and there is no room. Not only are the college dormitories full, but all To-day the attorneys for the four men sent to jail by the verdict of the coroner's to enter this college, but none to enter this college, out now do so, and, there is no room. Not only are the college dormitories full, but all available rooms in the village of viest analegh, where the institution is located, are filled with students.

Print Cloth Market.

(By Associated Press.)

FAIA: RIVER, MASS., September 8.—
The weekly sales in the print-cloth market are estimated at about ...,000 pieces. Trading in the local market has been somewhat quieter. The tone continues firm, and prices are unchanged on a selling basis of 31-2 cents for regulars. The failing off in the demand durant the past few days is contributed ing the past few days is contributed largely to the break in the cotton market, Dr. J. Calvin Stewart Returns.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Stawart have returned to the city, having spent six weeks in Maine and Massachusetts. Dr. Stewart will occupy his pulpit at the morning service on the next Sabbath.
